PATRIOTIC TALK FOR STATEHOOD

DELEGATE SMITH SAYS HE WILL FIGHT NEW MEXICO'S ADMIS-SION IF ARIZONA IS TO BE TURNED DOWN.

Delegate Mark Smith, upon his return to Tucson, expressed himself as follows to a reporter of the Tucson Citizen:

"I have not seen the Curry interview and therefore speak only of it as you represent it. If the president has assured Governor Curry that he will aid New Mexico in her efforts for single statehood, it only shows Arizona's wisdom in defeating the miserable, unfair and iniquitous joint state scheme which he so cruelly and constantly fathered during the last congress. It further shows that eternal vigilance on the part of the people is the price which they must pay for liberty. Arizona is to be congratulated. But representing her people, republicans and democrats alike, I do not feel disposed to sit idly by and see a less worthy state admitted to the union, and make no effort to secure Arizona her just dues. I shall, however, do nothing to endanger her future. I shall carefully feel the temper of the next house and if I find among the republicans enough opponents of New Mexico statehood, which, added to the full democratic vote, will kill her bill, I will, if I do not change my present state of mind, do my best to organize the full democratic strength against New Mexico's admittance. This is no dog in the manger spirit, either. I am and have always been in favor of the admission of both territories. I have earnestly worked for both. I will continue to do the same on all fair grounds. You may not know, but it is the fact that in the house that finally passed the bill admitting Arizona, Oklahoma and New Mexico, known as the omnibus bill, Arizona was to be left out altogether. I organized a solid democratic opposition of one hundred and fifty-seven votes against the bill, unless Arizona should be included. This was a republican house, just as the next house will be. That 147 votes added to the republican opposition, would have defeated the Oklahoma and New Mexico bill. They had to take in Arizona or lose. They added Arizona and won.
A like condition may again confront us, in which event I am apt to act as I did before. I have no patience with those erstwhile advocates of statehood who are now advising us to wait until after the next census. I imagine their purpose, which seems plain enough, and may hereafter fully state the facts as they appear to me.

"If the federal republican officials in Arizona will make the necessary fight Arizona republicans are for Arizona against any one man for president, they can get just as much out of it as New Mexico can get. I hope to see them stand as they have heretofore stood, for the immediate single statehood of Arizona.

"It seems to me the plainest duty of patriotism, and real patriotism in Arizona is never appealed to in vain. Be it understood that I am not fighting against New Mexico and will not fight against her admittance. I am fighting, however, for Arizona, and will fight for her best interest at all times and in every way, and against everything that presents itself in opposition to her advancement and prosperity. If I can win for Arizona I shall not hesitate at the use of any fair means to accomplish that end."

You never have any trouble to get children to take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. They like it because it tastes nearly like maple sugar. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is a safe, sure and prompt remedy for coughs and colds and is good for every member of the family. Sold by Hanna's Drug Store.

INDIAN'S DESCRIPTION OF AN ELUSIVE METAL

J. A. Porterie was yesterday speaking of the nomenclature of things in general and said that the best names were those given on the spur of the moment, being much more significant and informative than those applied by scientists. For instance, he said that the best name he had ever heard for quicksilver was conferred upon it by a Wallapai Indian who at the time was laboring under excitement and confusion, says the Arizona Republican.

This christening of mercury took place at a mill at Signal in Mohave county several years ago. An Indian had been hanging about the process of taking out silver. He asked more questions about it than the Indian usually asks. His attention seemed to be fixed on a flask of quicksilver which he supposed was a product of the ore.

One day when he thought nobody saw him he reached into the flask, grabbed a handful of the fluid and thrust it into the pocket of his trousers. He put the second handful in when the fireman who had slipped up behind him gave him a violent kick. When the Indian recovered from his astonishment he put his hand into his pocket to restore the stolen goods, but he was surprised to find nothing there, but his bare feet were splattered with the metal. The fireman, laughing at the embarrassment of the Indian, said: "Jim, what you call um in Wallapai?" Jim replied:
"We call um, no ketch um."
